Around Town

From the Tremont News, 1912

- Much corn is being harvested this week, the price having gone up to 60 cents a bushel for No. 3.
- Reverend Krumreig is learning to run the automobile that he purchased of Dr. Cody. He is able to keep it between the fences on the road now and will soon be an expert.
- Those who figured that potatoes were going to be so high priced that everyone could not afford to eat them, find they are mistaken. Dealers are now offering them at 85 cents per bushel.

- John Koch can claim the prize for selling the highest priced corn in this section. He had about 2000 baskets...he was offered $1.10 for it after it was tested...Mr. Koch promptly accepted the offer.

- Wednesday, May 15 has been selected as Sanitary Day, and you are kindly requested to aid the village authorities in cleaning the rubbish from the streets, lawns and alleys. Let us have your hearty co-operation and see how easy it is to beautify our streets and alleys.
